

December 6th-8th, 2024

Presented and Sponsored by

Friday, December 6th

4:30pm - 6:00pm - Children's Lantern Parade & Tree Lighting.

Parade starts from Stowe Elementary School, with tree lighting and caroling along Main Street. The parade finishes at Stowe Free Library to officially light lawn decorations, then children head upstairs to The Current for donuts and cider. Stop by the Stowe Historical Museum and visit their vintage Santa collection (open from 3:00pm - 7:00pm).

5:00pm - 8:00pm - Exhibit opening party for "Searching for Vermont's Lost Ski Areas, Part 2" at the Vermont Ski Museum.

7:00pm - Come see the play "Frozen Jr" at the Stowe Community Church.* Tickets can be purchased online at stowecommunitychurch.org/frozen.

Saturday, December 7th

8:00am - 12:00pm - Come to Brunch at Butler's Pantry before visiting Santa.* Children will receive a free hot cocoa "to go."

9:00am - 3:00pm - Stowe Community Church Christmas Craft Fair and Bake Sale.

11:00am - 1:00pm - "Sweet Treats" Santa Stroll with Snoopy throughout the Village. Visit local participating locations in Downtown Stowe for complimentary treats from Santa. Keep an eye out for Snoopy who will be making an appearance! Participating stores: Brenna B Interiors, Country Store on Main, Ellison Estate Vineyard, Farm Home Co., Green Mountain Inn, In Company, Once Upon A Time Toys, Northwood Gallery, Stowe Area Association, Tangerine & Olive, and Von Bargaen's Jewelry.

11:00am - 1:00pm - Visit with Vermont Author Tim Hayes at Bear Pond Books as he promotes his book "Riding Home: The Power of Horses to Heal."

11:00am - 4:00pm - Enjoy a Hot Cocoa Tasting at Lake Champlain Chocolates.

11:00am - 5:00pm - Holiday Market at Ellison Estate Vineyard Tasting Room featuring various artisans and retailers.

11:30am - 12:30pm - Carolers on Main Street.

12:00pm - SANTA arrives in Stowe Village escorted by Paul Percy on his tractor and wagon.

12:00pm - 3:00pm - Photos with Santa and free samplings at Stowe Mercantile, holiday cookies at Café on Main, and free holiday wagon rides throughout Stowe Village. (line up for rides behind Stowe Mercantile)

12:00pm - 3:00pm - Visit the Stowe Free Library porch and enjoy cookies and crafts with the library staff.

12:30pm - 1:00pm - Swinging with the Santas! Watch and join the fun of swing dancing with Just For Kicks in front of the Town Hall.

1:00pm - 3:00pm - Vermont Author George Woodard shares his holiday children's book "The Christmas Calf" at Bear Pond Books.

1:00pm - 4:00pm - Stowe Historical Museum welcomes all to visit their special Vintage Christmas exhibit while enjoying cookies.

1:00pm - 4:00pm - Holiday lunch at Cork featuring homemade eggnog and other festive treats, as well as wine tasting for adults.*

2:00pm - 4:00pm - Showing of "The Grinch" with cookies and hot cocoa at The Stowe Village Inn. Seating for 40 available.

7:00 pm - Come see the play "Frozen Jr" at the Stowe Community Church.* Tickets can be purchased online at stowecommunitychurch.org/frozen.

Sunday, December 8th

1:30 pm - 1:45 pm - Stowe Recreation Figure Skaters Show featuring Santa at the Stowe Arena.

1:45 pm - 3:00pm - Stowe Recreation Skating with Santa at the Stowe Arena.*

2:00 pm - Come see the play "Frozen Jr" at the Stowe Community Church.* Tickets can be purchased online at stowecommunitychurch.org/frozen.

All events are free and open to the public unless otherwise noted ***
Schedule is subject to change